

Form CC 377

PETITION FOR PERSONAL PROTECTION ORDER
(NONDOMESTIC)

Use this form if you want an order to restrain another person over the age of 18 and you do not have a domestic relationship to this person.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING "PETITION FOR PERSONAL PROTECTION ORDER (NONDOMESTIC)"

Please print neatly. Press firmly because you are printing on five copies.

By filling in this form, you are asking for a personal protection order that tells the respondent not to do certain things you don't want him or her to do. If you are in immediate danger, you should ask the judge for an "ex parte" order, which will be issued without waiting for a hearing.

Items A through H must be completed before your petition can be filed with the court. Please read the instructions for each item. Then fill in the correct information for that item on the form.

A Write your name, address, and telephone number in the "Petitioner" box. If you are under 18 years of age, write in your age. Write the name, address, and telephone number of the person you want restrained in the "Respondent" box; if he or she is under 18 years of age, write in his/her age. If you want your address and telephone number to be kept from the respondent, do not write your address here. Put in the address of a relative or friend or a post office box where the court can contact you.

B Check the box if the respondent is required to carry a firearm while at work. If you aren't sure, check the box "unknown."

C Check whether there is a pending action between you and the respondent. If there is, fill in the case number, the name of the court, the county, and the state or province where the action was filed, and the name of the judge.

Check whether there are any court orders or judgments between you and the respondent. If there are, fill in the case number, the name of the court, the county, and the state or province where the order or judgment was entered, and the name of the judge that signed the order.

D Explain in as much detail as possible why you are asking for a personal protection order. Describe what has happened or what has been threatened so the judge has enough facts to decide if a personal protection order should be signed. If you want to prohibit stalking, you must detail two or more separate instances of harassment (unconsented contact) that caused you to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested. Include dates and places. Write on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this form. If you only want to prohibit the posting of a message through the use of any medium of communication, including the Internet or a computer or any electronic medium, you must detail what caused you to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested.

E Check only those boxes you need because you must be able to convince the judge you need all the protection you are requesting. Check box a only if you provided details in item 4 that support an order against stalking.

F An "ex parte order" means you do not have to let the party know in advance that you are asking the court for an order and you do not have to wait for a court hearing to get the order. Check the box for an "ex parte order" if you believe the other party might hurt you or threaten you if he or she found out you were getting an ex parte personal protection order.

If you do not check the box for an ex parte order, you must have a court hearing. Fill out form CC 381.

G If you are under 18 years old, you may need an adult (called a "next friend") to petition for you. Check this box if you have a next friend helping you file this form, and have the next friend sign the petition.

H Write in today's date and sign the form. Hand the form to the county clerk. The clerk will fill in the rest of the information and will give you your copies.

Personal Protection Orders: Stalking

1. Do you know this person against whom you want the PPO?

If so, how do you know that person?

2. What contact has this person made with you?

Examples: Did he/she follow you or appear within your sight?
Approach or confront you, either in a public place or in private?
Did he/she come to your workplace or home? Has he/she called you or sent mail or e-mail to you? Has he/she sent unwanted packages or objects to you?

The above are just examples: state specifically what happened to you. Describe each incident, beginning with the most recent.
If there are more than two, describe what they are on additional sheets.

Most Recent Incident

Who made the contact with you?

What did this person do?

When did this incident occur?

Where did this incident occur?

Second Most Recent Incident

How much time was there between this incident and the most recent incident?

Who made the contact with you?

What did this person do?

When did this incident occur?

Where did this incident occur?

If further incidents have occurred, please describe them on additional sheets, including the length of time between incidents?

3. Has this person contacted you when you did not want him or her to?
4. Did you tell the person not to contact you?

If so:

When did you tell the person not to contact you?

Where did you tell the person not to contact you(over the phone, in person, at your home or workplace, etc)?

What did you say to this person when you told him/her not to contact you?

What occurred after you told the person not to contact you?

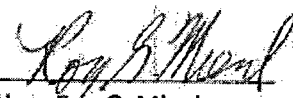

If not:

Please state why you did not tell the person not to contact you.

How have the person's acts or threats made you feel?

PROCEDURE WHEN AN EX PARTE PPO IS REQUESTED

1. An ex parte PPO will only be issued if it clearly appears from specific facts shown in the affidavit which you must sign – that immediate and irreparable injury, loss or damage will result from the delay required to give notice or that the notice itself will precipitate adverse action before a PPO can be issued.
2. You must print your name and the Respondent's name legibly and provide all identifying information of the Respondent, including a current address, phone number, date of birth, and physical description.
3. The assigned Judge will review your complaint and affidavit to determine whether an ex parte PPO should be issued.
4. The County Clerk's office may tell you that the Judge has done one of the following:
 - a. Granted the PPO. The Judge has determine that you are in immediate need of protection. Return to the Clerk's office for your paperwork. The Respondent will have the opportunity to request a hearing to either remove or change the PPO. You must attend the hearing if you wish to keep the PPO in place. It is also possible that the Judge may find that there is an immediate need for protection from some actions but not others. If this happens, Judge will grant only a portion of your PPO. If you wish to have more conditions added to your PPO, call the County Clerk's office to assist you in having a hearing to modify the PPO.
 - b. Denied the PPO in its entirety. The Judge has decided the facts you presented to him/her do not qualify you for a PPO at this time.
 - c. Denied the PPO but will allow a hearing. This does not mean the Judge does not feel you should have a PPO. The Judge has not found an immediate need for your PPO. He/She cannot justify it without allowing the opposing party to have notice that a PPO can be authorized against him/her. It now becomes your responsibility to set a hearing where both parties are allowed to speak to the Judge and present their case. Return to the Clerk's office for the form and assistance. The Respondent needs to be served notice for the hearing at least five days prior to the hearing. A Proof of Service must be completed and returned to the Clerk's office. Also, the Court may set a hearing on its own to determine if a PPO is necessary.

LEGAL OBLIGATIONS

You assume certain legal obligations when you apply for a Personal Protection Order. Meeting these obligations is essential for the success of your order, and for your and/or your children's safety. The following is a list of YOUR OBLIGATIONS as the Petitioner.

- AVOID CONTACT with the Respondent.

If your PPO is issued, YOU MUST COMPLY with the order by not contacting the Respondent. The JUDGE issued your PPO. Therefore, the order (although not expressly stated) prohibits YOU from allowing or giving permission to the Respondent to engage in behaviors that the Judge has ordered not to occur. If you need to have the order changed or ended, you must file a motion requesting the Judge to do so. The Clerk's office can assist you in filing the appropriate motion.

- SERVE the Respondent.

YOU CANNOT SERVE THE RESPONDENT YOURSELF. A process server or someone you can trust, like a friend or a relative, must complete service. Service must be completed by one of the following (unless specifically ordered by the Judge):

1. Personal Service (hand the Respondent the paperwork)
2. Certified Mail (return receipt requested, delivery restricted)
3. Registered Mail (return receipt requested, delivery restricted)

- FILE the Proof of Service form with the Circuit Court

Whoever serves the PPO must file the Proof of Service with the Circuit Court Clerk. The Respondent can then be held in "contempt" for a PPO violation.

- CARRY a Certified Copy of the PPO with you at all times.

If you call the police but the Respondent has not been served, the police can use YOUR COPY to serve the Respondent at the scene.

- BE TRUTHFUL in all statements to the court.

An individual who knowingly and intentionally makes a false statement to the court in support of his or her own petition is subject to contempt sanctions. An individual who alters the Judge's order is also subject to contempt sanctions.

- COMPLETE A MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE.

If the Respondent violates the order, but is not arrested, YOU must request the violation hearing. Contact the County Clerk's office for forms and assistance.
